

INTRODUCTION	I am a programmer with particular experience in real-time interactive systems and web development. I have been developing games since 2006.
EDUCATION	University of Warwick <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • MEng Computer Science (First Class) 	September 2005 to July 2009
EMPLOYMENT	Part-time game development <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Released a commercial title for iOS and Android platforms, These Robotic Hearts of Mine. 	November 2011 to present
	ComputerMinds Limited <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PHP developer working with Drupal to create websites to clients' specifications. 	September 2010 to present
	Jalfrezi Software <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developed a multithreaded Java virtual machine for applications written in XSLT. 	August 2009 to May 2010
PERSONAL PROJECTS	Over 50 game projects <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I have developed games in C++, Java and Flash, using a variety of libraries and tools. This includes both group and individual projects. • My game portfolio is available at www.draknek.org/games. 	2006 to present
	FlashPunk <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • I am the current maintainer of a popular open source Flash game engine. 	August 2011 to present
	Large Polygon Collider <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Fourth year university group project: a 2D and 3D physics engine and sandbox written in C++. • I led the development team of five people as project manager, API designer and lead programmer. • More information including video footage can be found at lpc.draknek.org. 	July 2008 to June 2009
ORGANISATIONS	Warwick Game Design <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organised talks, competitions and other events • Competed in termly 48 hour game development competitions in teams of two or three • Led a development team of six people for a year-long game project • Gave lectures on C++, game programming and physics simulation
	Warwick Juggling Society <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Taught workshops for beginner and intermediate ball and club jugglers
OTHER INTERESTS	Juggling, logic puzzles, hitch-hiking, reading, acting, mathematics	